Routine Notes. 7595

[To be used only for notes, requisitions, etc., not intended for permanent record.]

The point for consideration is whether, for purposes of the rule contained in para 79 of the Mysore Lock up Manual, the magistrate in charge of a Sub Division should have been invested with the powers of a Sub Divisional Magistrate under the Cr. Pro Code. The intention of the rule seems to be that all magistrates in charge of Divisions, with whatever powers invested, should be ex-officio visitors of Lock ups.

Submitted for orders

Subject to the practice in such cases, why should not Mr. A. Narayana Iyengar invested with the powers of a Sub-Divl Magte

Please bring up in person

~~Mr Krishnaswamy Iyengar~~

Re in such cases, there is no ~~reference~~ beyond the

(1) the practice ~~of Sub-Divisional Magistrates~~ of Rule 19 of the Lock up Manual

(2) Mr Krishnaswamy Iyengar was invested with the powers of a Sub Divisional magistrate in notifn No J 702-25 5-1-72 J. 25-8-1917, while at Nanjanad and this transfer to ~~Dodballapur~~ Bangalore District he ceased to exercise those powers owing to the introduction of the separation scheme with which Dr. and is now only an ~~ex officio~~ Deputy Magistrate.

As already mentioned above the wording of Rule 19 does not seem to require that a magistrate in charge of a sub Divn should, in order to exercise the powers of prosecution, have been invested with the powers of a Sub Divisional Magistrate under the Cr Pro Code

For the purposes of R. 19 of the Lock-up Manual, it does not seem to be necessary that the magistrate in charge of a Sub-Div should be invested with the powers of a Sub-Div Magistrate. Mr A. Krishnaswamy Iyengar may perhaps inspect the Lock-ups in his Sub-Div under R. 18 Lock-up Manual.
